

Scenario An intelligence agency provided us with a zipped file to analyze. They claim it was obtained from a suspected terrorist who intended to send it to one of their allies. We trust you to uncover the hidden message but please keep this information confidential. Shhh...

Hint:

The terms "reverse racism" and "reverse discrimination" emerged in direct response to affirmative action and race-based policies in the 1970s. Instead of dividing people along the lines of "our side" and "their side," we should focus on uniting individuals around shared ideas and principles.
